

Eulogies by Rich

Use this list to prepare for filling out your online questionnaire. Don't feel bad if you don't know the answer to every question. These questions are only to gather factual information – name, date of birth, correct spellings, etc. – just so we don't have to spend time on these things during our call.

Please introduce yourself

Full name

Phone number

What is your relationship to your loved one who has passed?

Tell me about the service

What type of service will you be speaking at?

What is the name of the funeral home/church/other location where you will be speaking?

What is the date of the service when you will be speaking?

Please introduce your loved one who has passed

Their full name

Do they have any nicknames?

What do they prefer to be called?

What is their gender?

How do they like to be referred? (pronouns)

What is their date of birth?

What was the date of their death?

Accomplishments

What schools did they attend, and what degrees/honors did they receive?

What was their occupation?

Was there anything in their work history they were especially proud of?

Do they have any awards or accomplishments you would like to mention?

Were they part of any organizations?

What were their favorite pastimes or hobbies?

Favorite Reading

Do you have a poem, bible verse, quote, song lyric, or reading that you would like included in your eulogy? Please include it in its entirety along with the author's name if you know it.

Relatives/Special People

Please provide the names and relationship for anyone you think should be mentioned in the eulogy. Some recommendations are spouse, children, grandchildren, parents, etc. Provide as many or few names as feels right.